

Domenico Mario NUTI. Born Arezzo (Italy) 16-8-1937. Italian citizen.

Professor of Comparative Economic Systems, University of Rome. (1993 to date); Visiting Professor, Centre for New and Emerging Markets, London Business School, Regent's Park, London NW1 4SA, tel. (44)(0)20-7706 6971 direct; -7262 5050 switchboard, FAX -7724 8060. E-mail: mnuti@london.edu.

First Class Honours Degree in Law, cum laude, Rome (1962); PhD (Economics), Cambridge, England (1970). Fellow of King's College, Cambridge (1965-79) and Lecturer at the Faculty of Economics and Politics, Cambridge University; Professor of Political Economy and Director of the Centre for Russian and East European Studies, University of Birmingham (1980-82); Professor of Economics, European University Institute, Florence (1982-90). Economic Adviser on central eastern Europe, DG-II, European Commission, Brussels (1990-1993).

Consultant to the World Bank; four missions to Poland (1986-88) and extensive work on post-communist economies. Consultant to the IMF, ILO, NATO, UNDP, OECD. Specialist Adviser to the House of Lords European Communities Committee (1993-1994). Economic Adviser to the Polish Government within the European Union PHARE Programme (1994-1997). Economic adviser to the Presidential Administration of Belarus, under World Bank sponsorship (1998). Economic adviser to the Presidential Administration of Uzbekistan, under the sponsorship of the European Union TACIS Programme (1999-2000).

Editor of Socialist Economics (with Alec Nove; Penguin 1972, 1974, 1977) and of V.K. Dmitriev's Value, Competition and Utility (CUP, 1974); main author of the World Bank Report on Poland (1988). Co-author of Transformation and Integration: Shaping the future of central eastern Europe, IPPR, London 1995; Not 'Just Another Accession' - Political economy of EU Enlargement to the East, IPPR, London 1997; Hard Choices, Soft States: social welfare policy in the transition, IPPR, London 2000. Co-author of "Employee Ownership in Privatisation: Lessons from Central and Eastern Europe", Experts' Policy Report, ILO-CEET, Budapest 1998.

Author of numerous publications on post-communist economic transformations. Recent publications include: "Privatisation of socialist economies: general issues and the Polish case", OECD, Paris, 1991; "Stabilisation and reform sequencing in the reform of socialist economies", EDI-World Bank, 1991; "Sequencing and credibility in economic reform"; in A.B. Atkinson and R. Brunetta (Eds.), Economics for the New Europe, MacMillan, 1991; "Lessons from stabilisation and reform in central and eastern Europe", Economic Papers n. 92, CEC-DGII, Brussels, 1992; "The role of the banking sector in the process of privatisation", Economic Papers n. 98, CEC-DGII, Brussels, 1992; (with Richard Portes), "Central Europe: the way forward", Brussels and London 1993; "Economic inertia in the transitional economies of central eastern Europe", in: M. Uvalic et al. (Eds), Impediments to the Transition in Eastern Europe, EUI-EPU, Florence 1993; "The impact of systemic transition on the European Community", in S. Martin (Ed.), The Construction of Europe, Dordrecht, 1994; "Mass privatisation: costs and benefits of instant capitalism", in R. Daviddi (Ed.) Property rights and privatization, EIPA, Maastricht 1995; "Inflation, interest and exchange rates in the transition", The Economics of Transition, vol. 4(1), 1996; "European Community response to the Transition: Aid, Trade Access, Enlargement", The Economics of Transition, vol. 4(2), 1996; with G. W. Kolodko, "The Polish Alternative", UN-WIDER Research in Action n. 33, Helsinki, 1997. "Making sense of the Third Way", Business Strategy Review, Vol. 10, n.3, Autumn 1999. "The Polish Zloty, 1990-99: Success and Under-Performance", American Economic Review, May 2000, Papers and Proceedings.

Languages: Italian, English, French, Polish; working knowledge of Russian and Spanish.